

Resurrection

Out of the manger, out of the womb
Out of the garden, onto the tree,
Down from the cross and into the tomb,
Out of the tomb, evermore to be free.

Out of fierce hatred into kind Love,
Out of the Temple into the World,
Out of humanity risen above,
Through all the Heavens His Message unfurled.

Out of the body, absorbed in space,
Out of time's yoke to Eternity,
Out of one people to every race,
Freed from all limits to Infinity.
